

FAISS (Facebook AI Similarity Search) is a library for efficient similarity search.

It is used to index and retrieve high-dimensional vectors such as sentence embeddings.

FAISS supports both CPU and GPU execution for fast search operations.